IVAN KOMAR

Senior Associate, Attorney at law

Ivan Komar is an Senior Associate, Attorney at law in GOLAW's Criminal Law Practice with over 20 years of experience in criminal law and criminal procedure.

Ivan focuses on defending and representing clients in criminal proceedings related to offences in the sphere of economic and official (white-collar) activities. He has deep expertise in handling economic criminal cases, providing full-cycle legal support ranging from legal counselling and defense strategy development to representation during pre-trial investigations and court proceedings.

Ivan successfully represents companies and their officers in matters involving the appeal of unlawful actions or decisions of law enforcement authorities. His work is aimed at ensuring effective protection of businesses from unlawful pressure, lifting asset seizures, and securing the return of improperly confiscated property.

His professional strengths combine profound knowledge of criminal procedure, strategic thinking, and a practical approach to resolving complex criminal law issues.
