TETIANA OPANASIUK

Lawyer, Attorney at law

Tetiana Opanasiuk is an Attorney at law in the Litigation and dispute resolution practice at GOLAW, with over 20 years of professional experience in the field of justice and public administration.

Her expertise includes legal support of the judiciary, international cooperation, and legislative development.

Tetiana effectively combines her unique public sector experience with strong client representation skills in commercial, civil, and administrative disputes. Her in-depth understanding of the internal operations of public authorities and courts is a significant advantage when providing legal assistance in court proceedings, particularly in matters involving property rights protection, land, contract, and labor relations, as well as in challenging decisions, actions, or inactions of public authorities.

Tetiana provides comprehensive legal advice on Ukrainian legislation and supports clients at all stages of dispute resolution.
