YURII VIAZINKO

Attorney at law

Yurii Viazinko is an associate at GOLAW, specializing in government relations, extradition procedures, corporate regulation, and dispute resolution.

He provides legal support in matters related to economic and financial offenses, extradition, international legal assistance, and communication with law enforcement, regulatory, and supervisory authorities. Yurii has hands-on experience with international law enforcement cooperation procedures and the preparation of legal positions and procedural documents.

The lawyer advises Ukrainian and foreign companies on a wide range of corporate law matters, including business structuring, changes in management and shareholder composition, contract law, and legal aspects of day-to-day operations. He assists in resolving disputes arising in relations with counterparties, regulatory bodies, or business partners.

He also provides legal assistance to private clients, including business beneficiaries, on minimizing legal risks, developing asset protection strategies, and ensuring effective communication with government institutions.
